

THE INTERNATIONAL MALTA HIT SONG CONTEST 2010

RULES & REGULATIONS

(FOR THE LOCAL ARTISTS)

01. The INTERNATIONAL MALTA HIT SONG CONTEST 2010 is the follow-up edition of the MALTA HIT SONG CONTEST 2008 and 2009 and will be aired on ONE TV.

02. The Malta Hit Song Contest 2010 is open to all songwriters and singers who are in possession of a Maltese citizenship or dual citizenship (by the song contest's submission date).

03. Singers, composers and authors must be 15 years of age by 30th April 2010. Participants who are younger than 16 years of age, by the submission date, need to get the application forms signed by any one of the parents/guardians.

04. There is no limit on how many entries each songwriter and singer can submit.

HOWEVER from the TELEVISED PROMOTIONAL PHASE onwards, each singer must retain ONE ENTRY only (one singer, one song). In case a singer has 2 or more songs in the TELEVISED PHASE, s/he must retain the song which obtained most points in the previous selection phase. The other songs can be passed on to other singers or withdrawn from the competition upon discretion of the respective composer.

05. The recording must be clear and of an optimum level. At no stage following submissions will changes in the compositions be permitted (except for a change of singer in cases referred to in rule 04).

06. Each submitted song must be original in lyrics and music. Authors may choose any subject for their songs, however, songs with racist, sexist, political discrimination or anti-religious remarks will be disqualified.

07. The lyrics should be mainly in English but may include short phrases (or verses) in Maltese. 10 copies of the lyrics must be provided and placed in an A3 envelope marked 'A' (read rules 15 and 16).

08. Each submitted song must have not been released or performed in public before 1st October 2009. Songs taking part in other televised song festivals held between October 2009 and May 2010 are not eligible to take part in the International Malta Hit Song Contest 2010.

09. Each song must not exceed (3:30min) 3 minutes 30 seconds in duration.

10. Songs in violation of any copyright not owned by the songwriters will be eliminated.

11. The 15 entries reaching the TELEVISED PROMOTIONAL PHASE onwards are bound to exclusive promotion and performance on the song contest's related television shows or as advised by the organising committee. Breaching of such agreement will lead to immediate elimination.

12. Songs will be interpreted LIVE by the main vocalists (except when otherwise indicated). Backing vocalists will be pre-recorded in all phases of the song contest.

13. Maximum number of persons on stage: 8 (including the main vocalists).

14. All participants should note that this is a TELEVISION SHOW - A POLISHED PERFORMANCE of the entry (including: vocals, choreography, appearance and props) is highly recommended in all selection stages.

SUBMISSIONS

15. An A4 Envelope marked 'A' should contain 10 copies of the lyrics together with application form 'A' (attached below) and a CD containing the following tracks:

Track 1: The full song

Track 2: The Backing track (with recorded backing vocals)

Track 3: The Instrumental version (no vocals)

16. An A5 Envelope marked 'B' containing the contact details of the participants together with a detailed biography of the main singer/s. (Attached below 'B')

17. Only the title of the song must be written on lyrics and the submitted CD. On CD the title of the song must be written in Black Block Letters. Lyrics or CDs with marks revealing the participants identity will lead to the sudden disqualification of the entry.

18. Deadline for submission of entries: 8th December 2009. Closing and announcement dates may be changed according to the organisers' discretion.

JUDGING PHASES

19. All submitted entries will need to go through the following phases:

PHASE A: THE CD PHASE: (to be held behind closed doors) – A panel of judges will listen to all submitted entries on CD. Judges will choose the 15 finalists.

PHASE B: THE TELEVISED PROMOTIONAL PHASE:

To be held between JANUARY and APRIL 2010 on ONE TV.

The 15 entries (so, 15 different singers) will proceed to the TELEVISED PHASE which will serve as a PROMOTIONAL PHASE only. No elimination will be held during this period.

SMS voting will serve only to award a different and separate prize, namely "The Public's Choice Award". This will not reflect in the final result of the winning entries.

Different entries will be performed IN FULL every week. A 30-second clip from each entry's refrain will be played every week as a reminder for the SMS voting.

PHASE C: THE FINAL:

To be held on 30th April 2010

All 15 finalists will reach this phase. The winning entry will be chosen by a 100% international professional jury.

10 foreign singers will compete in a separate INTERNATIONAL category.

20. All TELEVISED phases will be held on ONE TV.

Participants need to respect the schedule issued by the producers for the televised 'promotional' phase. Failing to abide by the pre-set schedule will lead to automatic disqualification of entry.

21. Competition Prizes for the local finalists include:

€500 for the entry placed FIRST

€300 for the entry placed SECOND

€200 for the entry placed THIRD

Organizers will hand the prizes to the composers of the winning entries. It is advisable that lyricists and singers reach an agreement beforehand with the respective composers regarding the distribution of cash prizes.

Singers, authors and composers of the top-3 places of the FINAL will be awarded with trophies. A separate trophy will be awarded to the winner of the public opinion (winner of the SMS-voting).

22. UKAM – the Malta Union of the local composers, authors, singers and musicians will observe the process closely during all voting phases of the Malta Hit Song Contest 2010.

23. All decisions taken by the International Malta HIT Song Contest Committee are final and binding and there may be no appeal from such decisions. No reason needs to be given for any decision taken by the Committee. By participating and by entering a song for the International Malta Hit Song Contest 2010, each applicant is accepting all these terms and all conditions regulating this participation and is agreeing to be bound by such conditions and regulations.

Closing and announcement dates may be changed according to the organisers' discretion. Rules may also be changed according to the organisers' discretion. All applicants undertake to follow all the festival's regulations and the International Malta HIT Song Committee's directives. Any breach of same will entail immediate disqualification from participating in any manner in the festival, without any recourse whatsoever.

24. Application forms together with the requested material and a submission fee of €50 each can be submitted at ONE TV (Marsa) on 8th December 2009 between 9:00am and 1:00pm.
